

"The definitive book on the subject. No gimmicks: just straightforward, honest advice from the recognized authority on the application process—as well as in-depth comments from the admissions directors at all of the leading schools."

—Thomas Caleel, Director of Admissions and Financial Aid,
The Wharton School (University of Pennsylvania)

P 2012
4339

Now with Expanded
Coverage of Executive
MBAs

HOW TO GET INTO THE TOP
MBA
PROGRAMS
FOURTH EDITION

RICHARD MONTAUK

Author of How to Get Into the Top Law Schools

CONTENTS

Preface—xi

How to Benefit Most From This Book—xiii

Part I THE CONTEXT

1 Why Get an MBA?—3

Some Common Reasons for Getting an MBA—4

What Does an MBA Program Do?—5

The Value of Going to a Top School—7

Financial Considerations—9

Who Hires MBAs?—9

Is an MBA Right for You?—10

2 Types of MBA Programs—11

The Traditional, Full-Time American MBA—12

The European MBA—14

Part-Time MBAs—19

Executive MBAs—20

Sponsorship—22

Specialized MBAs—28

Appendix I: What to Expect at Business School—35

3 How to Choose the Right School for You—43

Know Yourself—and What You Want from an MBA—44

Research the Schools—45

Determine How Many Schools to Apply To—48

Avoid the Likely Pitfalls in Choosing a School—52

Final Decision Criteria—53

Appendix II: Criteria for Assessing MBA Programs—55

Appendix III: Choosing a Part-Time or an Executive MBA Program—70

Appendix IV: Visiting Business Schools—86

4 How to Use the Rankings—95

Using the Rankings—96

The Rankings—98

- The Top in Everything?—104
- Limitations of the Rankings' Methodologies—105

5 The Admissions Process—120

- "Rolling" versus "Rounds" Admissions—121
- The Standard (American) Model—122
- The Student-Involvement Variation—124
- The European Variation—124

6 Application Timetable—128

- When Should You Apply—Early or Late in an Application Cycle?—129
- How Long Will It Take to Do Your Applications?—132
- The Application Timetable—133
- Where Are Things Most Likely to Go Astray?—136
- Appendix V: Application Organizer for Each School—137*

Part II MARKETING YOURSELF SUCCESSFULLY

7 Making the Most of Your Credentials—143

- Qualities Schools Look For—144
- The Evidence Schools Examine—146
- Undergraduate Record—147
- The GMAT—153
- Work Experience: Regular Applicants—162
- Work Experience: Younger and Older Applicants—165
- Extracurricular Activities During College—176
- Community and Other Activities—177
- Your Presentation—181
- Making the Ultimate Decisions—182
- For International Applicants—193

8 Marketing Yourself: General Principles—198

- Determining the Substance of Your Message—199
- Capitalizing on Your Strengths, Minimizing Your Weaknesses—205
- Fit In—Stand Out—210
- Fashioning Your Message: Positioning—211
- General Positioning versus Specific Positioning—213
- The Mechanics of Positioning: Using Themes—213
- A Simple Positioning Effort—219
- The Marketing Vehicles—220
- Conclusion—220
- Appendix VI: Personal Organizer—221*

9 Understanding the Key Essay Topics—227

Taking Full Advantage of the Essays—228

MBA Program Topics—230

Business and Career Topics—240

Mixed Business and Personal Topics—254

Personal Topics—267

Other Topics—274

Team Essays—279

Brief Notes on Additional Essays—281

General Rules for Approaching Any Essay Question—283

10 How to Write Persuasive Essays—287

The Writing Process: Getting Started—289

Planning—290

Writing—290

Tips for Good Writing—300

Reusing Your Essays—306

Further Reading—307

11 Recommendations—308

Why Are Recommendations Required?—309

What Do Admissions Committees Learn from Your Recommendations?—311

Who Should Write Your Recommendations?—312

How Many Recommenders?—316

Approaching a Potential Recommender—317

What Do You Want Said About You?

And How Can You Increase Its Value?—320

The Follow-Up—328

Recommendation Example—329

*Appendix VII: Recommendation Briefing Outline—33612 Interviews—337

Interviewing Policies—338

Before the Interview—341

Practice—349

Physical Preparations—350

During the Interview—351

General Rules for Interviews—357

Special Types of Interviews—361

How to Deal with the Incompetent Interviewer—374

After the Interview—375

- Special Concerns for International Applicants—377
- Appendix VIII: Interview Questions*—378
- Appendix IX: Résumés*—387

Part III ON THE ROAD TO BUSINESS SCHOOL

13 Responding to Wait-Listing, Rejections, and Other Disappointments—393

- Responding to Administrative Holds—394
- Responding to Wait-Listing—394
- Responding to Rejection—399
- Should You Ever Appeal a Rejection?—401
- Should You Reapply in the Future or Settle for a Lesser School?—402
- Other Options—405

14 What to Do Once You Are Accepted—406

- Accepting Your Offer—407
- Leaving Your Job—410
- Preparing for Business School—411

15 How to Get the Most Out of Business School—425

- Hit the Ground Running—426
- Time Management Matters—426
- Choose Your Study Group Wisely—427
- Cut to the Chase—428
- Develop Skills and Knowledge That Are Vital to Your Career (and Difficult to Develop Outside of Business School)—429
- Think About Your Career Development—433
- Keep Stress Under Control—436
- Don't Forget the Social Experience—438

16 Financing Your MBA—439

- Calculating the Cost of Business School—440
- Financing Sources—442
- Evaluating Financial Packages—and Trying for More—449
- Strategies for Financing Your Business School Education—451
- Summary: The Basic Strategies—454
- Additional Information Sources—457

Part IV APPLICATION ESSAY EXAMPLES

Essays—461

Overview of the Applicants and Their Essays—464

106 Essays Written for Top Schools on Thirty-six Different Topics—462

Index—629